Ocean Properties

From humble beginnings in Northern Maine, founder Tom Walsh has grown Ocean Properties to a national operation of more than 120 hotels across the US and Canada, primarily under the AmeriSuites, Hilton, Holiday Inn, Marriott, and Sheraton brands. Ocean Properties Ltd., first contracted with Stanley Elevator Company in 1984 for the Nashua Holiday Inn renovation. Since then, that relationship has expanded, with Stanley Elevator installing and servicing the majority of elevators for Ocean Properties across New England.

The Challenge

- Provide vertical transportation solutions for a wide range of applications
- Select special finishes for high-end cabs to suit each property's interior decor
- Tailor elevator systems to each property's traffic and security requirements for the convenience of each and every guest

The Solution

- Work closely with Ocean Property design and construction teams from concept to completion of project

- Offer a wide range of cab and finish upgrades, including custom solutions
- Provide comfortable and inviting cabs, signal fixtures, and security features, to ensure each guest receives top quality elevator service

The Benefit

- Ocean Properties has relied on Stanley Elevator to provide solutions to elevator challenges for over 30 years.
- A recent example includes a Presidential visit to the Bar Harbor Regency in the summer of 2010 in which Stanley was called upon to provide specially secured elevators for the arrival of the President.
